

METHOD OF MANUFACTURING A CULTURE MEDIUM

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

5

The invention relates to a method of manufacturing a culture medium on which plants can be grown. The method comprises mixing organic and/or inorganic particulate base materials with a thermoplastic, biologically degradable, binding agent, heating the mixture to make it at least semi-fluid, and then cooling the mixture to solidify it.